Day 1 - Byway to Walpole

- Enjoy brunch and a tour of L.A. Burdick Handmade Chocolates \(1\) in Walpole.
- Stop in at the Bellows House Bakery \(2\) for cookies, brownies and one of their famous whoopie pies.
- Visit Unbridled Chocolates \(3\) in Marlborough for a tasting, a class, and to watch the chocolate making process.
- Take a group photo in front of one of the many historic covered bridges in the area.
- End the day with a family-style, home cooked meal at the Inn at East Hill Farm \(4\) built in 1834 and known for its working farm, dance weekends, and entertaining events.

Day 2 - On to Peterborough

- Continue to Peterborough to Ava Marie Handmade Chocolates \(5\) and sample an award-winning milk or dark chocolate pecan turtle.
- Spend the evening shopping at Depot Square \(6\) and exploring the boutique shops in Peterborough.
- Peterborough is internationally known as a major contributor to the world of art. Visit the MacDowell Colony \(7\), founded in 1907, the oldest artists' colony in the United States.
- Stop by the Sharon Arts Center \(8\) where you can take a workshop or explore one of their two galleries.

Day 3 - North to Merrimack

- Visit Swan Chocolates \(9\) in Merrimack for a tour of their factory.
- Continue on to Van Otis Chocolates \(10\) in Manchester. Make sure to pick up some of their award-winning Swiss fudge.
- Drive north to Concord to enjoy the historic downtown shops, tour the State House \(11\) and enjoy lunch. Remember to visit Granite State Candy Shoppe \(12\), established in 1927.

Next time you're in the area, make sure to check out:

- Kellerhaus, in Weirs Beach, New Hampshire's oldest candy and ice cream makers.
- The world's longest candy counter at Chutter's in Littleton.
- The natural, trans fat free, no preservatives and organic goodies at the Lollipop Tree in Portsmouth.
